A collection of poetry full of emotion, imagery, and observations about everyday life. With topics ranging from Hurricane Katrina to trips down memory lane, Glimmer of Hope highlights struggles that we all face from time to time. "Glimmer of Hope plumbs the deepest and darkest corners of the mind and emotions. It explores frustration, despair, longing, desire, disappointment, and equal measures of humor, irony, and enthusiasm. Through the breadth of the represented experiences, Glimmer of Hope posits that even the darkest places afford just enough light for the path of the human spirit.
